

CITI: Resources for Faculty

Center for Innovative and Transformative Instruction

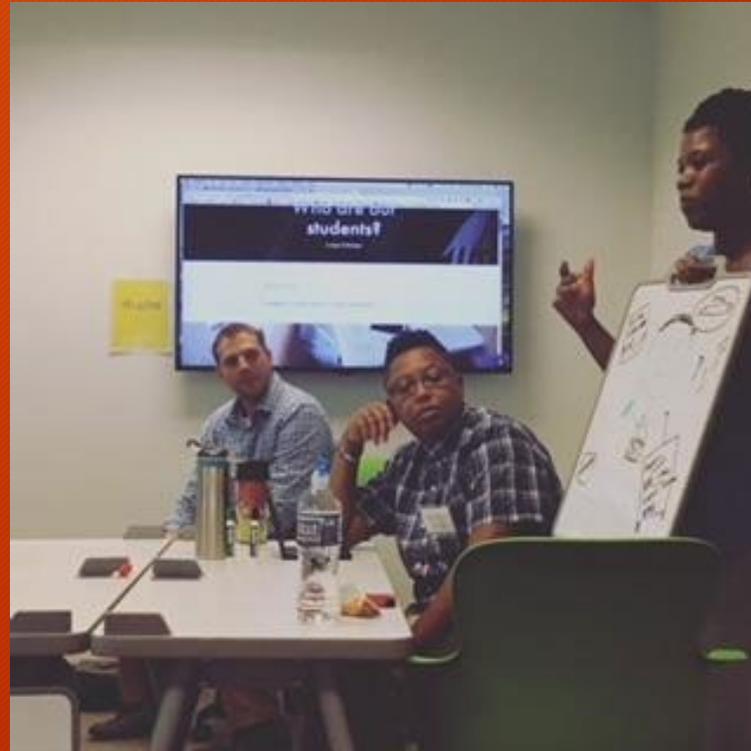

What is CITI

- We are a center for teaching and learning.
- We are source of technological tools.
- We are a Quality Matters center for e-learning.

What we can do

- Course alignment
- MAPS (mid-term assessment plans)
- Consultations for assessments, activities, course plans, etc
- Quality Matters review
- Online course design
- Workshops
- Faculty Symposiums
- Technological inquiries
- New gadgets
- More...

And it's...

- All free (watch for notices for workshops in CITIBeat)
- All part of the experience (brainstorm new ideas, look for weekly articles in CITIBlog)
- All confidential
- All connected (bring your ideas or technology forth for sharing)
- All about being a resource to provide the best learning experience for the students.

New initiatives

- Canvas training
- SLO's
- Digital Literacy (with Adobe Creative Cloud)
- HIPs (High Impact Practices)
